The PG & Research Department of Computer Science organized the Sarada Suta Alumnae Meet on 27th June 2025, reflecting Selvi E. Sharmi, an alumna from the 2014–2017 batch and currently working as a Business Analyst at Express Group in Dubai. The event commenced with prayer. She delivered an inspiring talk, sharing her professional journey, experiences, and valuable insights into emerging trends in the IT industry. She also highlighted the various avenues for unlocking career opportunities beyond borders, encouraging students to broaden their horizons and pursue global aspirations. She encouraged students to stay updated with the latest tools and technologies and to build a strong personal brand through networking, certifications, and internships. Moreover, she shed light on the significance of cross-cultural communication and global collaboration in today's interconnected world. The talk concluded with a motivating message on embracing challenges, being open to international opportunities, and never hesitating to step out of one's comfort zone. The session left a lasting impact, inspiring attendees to dream big and prepare themselves for a dynamic global career. The session had enthusiastic participation, with 71 undergraduate and 10 postgraduate students attending offline, and 18 alumnae joining the session virtually. Students actively engaged in an interactive Q&A session, seeking guidance on academic and career-related queries. The meet concluded on Shanthy prayer, marking the end of an insightful and motivational gathering.
