“Porunai Literary Festival 2025”

Department of Tamil and Sarada Library & NDLI Club

Date: 19.12.2024 to 26.12.2024

Venue: Seminar Hall & Auditorium

The Sarada Library in collaboration with the Department of Tamil organized the Porunai Literary Festival 2025, a week-long celebration of literature, culture, and creativity, from 19/12/2024 to 26/12/2024. The festival aimed to encourage students to explore and express their literary talents across diverse platforms. The event commenced with the blessings of Yatiswari Mukundapriya Advisor Amba. The festival was held under the guidance of Prof (Major) P. Chandrasekaran, Director of the College, and under the supervision of Dr(Smt) N. Kamala, Principal, whose leadership contributed significantly to the success of the event. Distinguished Government Librarians Mr. A. Kandasamy (Town Branch), Mr. M. Akila Muthukumar (Meenakshipuram Branch), Mrs. S. Pamavathy, (Gangai Kondan Branch) Library and the District Administrative supervisors actively participated and contributed to the sessions. Dr. T. Dhanalakshmi, Head & Assistant Professor, Department of Tamil, Librarians Smt. S. Gomathi, and Dr. G. Radha coordinated the programme. Throughout the six days, a wide range of literary competitions were conducted, engaging 478 student participants from various disciplines. The events included: Two-minute speech competition, Painting competition, Internet speech competition, Antiquity and Continuity photomontage creation, Prompt Haiku creation, Tamil book introduction competition, Debate (stage event), Literary quiz competition, Prompt engineering, and Book review in English. The prize winners were honoured by the District Collector with cash prizes at VOC College Thoothukudi on 04.01.2025.
