An Initiative for Socio- Cultural- Traditional – Communal Harmony Sarva Samaya Samathuva Pongal

Date: 16.1.2026

Time: 9.00 am

Venue: Lord Krishna Temple

Sarva Samaya Samathuva Pongal was celebrated on 16.01.2026 at Sri Krishnar Temple, near the Dairy Farm premises, with the noble objective of promoting socio-economic, cultural, regional, and communal harmony. The programme aimed to foster unity and mutual respect among people of different faiths and communities. The celebration commenced with the ceremonial installation of the Pongal pot, symbolizing gratitude to nature, prosperity, and collective well-being. The cultural segment included bhajans and kolattam, which added spiritual fervour and traditional vibrancy to the occasion. A special highlight of the programme was the interfaith reflections, where speakers from three religious traditions shared messages of unity and harmony. The event was graced by Srimath Swami Nirmalananda Maharaj, Sri Ramakrishna Ashram, Courtallam, who addressed the participants on spiritual oneness and inner harmony beyond religious boundaries. Rev. Iruthayam, Director, Ithaya Jyothi College of Nursing, Kowsanalpuram insisted on compassion, service to humanity, and the role of education in nurturing social harmony. Janab M. A. Nazir, Vice President, Junction Jumma Majith, emphasized the importance of communal unity, mutual respect, and peaceful coexistence as the foundation of healthy and progressive society. Representatives from various Government departments and members of different religious communities enthusiastically participated in the programme, reflecting the true spirit of Sarva Samaya Samathuva. The programme concluded with archana, meditation, and arathi. Devotees, farmers, Alumnae and Public have participated. Prasatham (Noon Lunch) was offered to all participants at the Annapoorani Hall, marking the successful completion of the event.
